Personal Study/Growth Group Discussion Questions

Getting Started:

1. At the beginning of our study of Hebrews, Dan identified the following reasons we need the message of Hebrews today:
 - It warns us of the danger of spiritual drift.
 - It challenges us to grow spiritually.
 - It calls us to renounce the fleeting pleasures of sin.
 - It inspires us to endure suffering and persecution.
 - It gives a greater glimpse of the glory and majesty of Jesus.

Which of these has brought the most growth in your spiritual life?

Digging Deeper:

Read Hebrews 13:9-25.

1. With what strange teachings does culture confront you? Do you ever feel tempted to entertain these teachings? Why or why not? How do these teachings differ from the one true and unchanging faith and message of Jesus?
2. What does it mean for us to “go to him outside the camp, bearing the disgrace he bore”?

3. What relationship does the coming city of God have to our suffering? How does the reality of an everlasting city motivate you to endure in the faith?
4. What does the author have in mind when he urges his readers to offer a “sacrifice of praise”? What does it look like for us to obey this instruction? What does the fruit of our lips have to do with this sacrifice of praise?
5. How are our submission and obedience to our church leaders contingent on the substance of what they teach us? How can we help make their ministry a joy?
6. What main lessons have you learned through our study of Hebrews?
